READINGS

This Week: : 22nd Sunday in OT (A)

First Reading Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah's acknowledgement of God's overpowering love, and his submission to it, come at the cost of hatred and mockery.

Second Reading Romans 12:1-2

We can only know God's will for us by making an oblation of our lives, and shunning worldliness.

Gospel Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus seeks to clarify that his mission will end in seeming disaster, through his suffering and death. Those who want to follow him will have to be prepared to share in this suffering too. There is the promise of future glory for those who do so.

Next Week: 23rd Sunday in OT (A)

Today's Readings

First Reading Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah's acknowledgement of God's overpowering love, and his submission to it, come at the cost of hatred and mockery.

Second Reading Romans 12:1-2

We can only know God's will for us by making an oblation of our lives, and shunning worldliness.

Gospel Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus seeks to clarify that his mission will end in seeming disaster, through his suffering and death. Those who want to follow him will have to be prepared to share in this suffering too. There is the promise of future glory for those who do so.

The New Translation – The Gloria and the Creed

We will also notice some changes in the Gloria and the Creed. In fact, there is not a great deal of change in the new words that we will pray so we will have to be careful that we don't slip into the old texts! The first lines of the Gloria itself echo the angels' message to the shepherds, announcing the birth of Christ (Luke 2:14). Because of these changes, new music is being written so that we will be able to sing the new translation, too. When it comes to the Creed we will notice the first change immediately - 'I believe', not, 'We believe'. We have become used to praying the Creed all together as a parish. The trouble is, when we say 'we believe' it could suggest that between us all we believe everything being said. It is not clear that we all believe everything that is being said. To say 'I believe' makes it quite clear that each one of us believes everything we are saying.

Next weekend we will begin using the new People's Text of the Revised Roman Missal.

There will be Mass cards available as you come into Church.

Welcome back to all those who took part in World Youth Day. The young people from Kingston Deanery returned last Monday evening from Madrid after meeting Pope Benedict. They were full of enthusiasm and had a wonderful time and want to go to Brazil in two years time.

Some of the young people will be talking at all Masses soon to tell you about their experiences. Many thanks to Andrew and all the leaders who did such a wonderful job. Fr Anthony
